

Echosmith, Tell Her You Love Her (Ft. Mat Kearney)

Tell her a story
Tell her the honest truth
Make sure to see it through
Don't be just everything she wants
Be everything she needs

Tell her you love her too
Give her a reason
A reason to love all you do

She'll tell you a secret
You'll tell her secrets too
She will tell you all her hopes and dreams
You'll tell her too

When she says she loves you
Tell her you love her too
Tell her you love her too
But don't you run away
Run away
When you get tired
Cause this will slip away
Slip away
And start a fire
