

Ed Sheeran, Dusty

Utwór 'Dusty' z albumu 'Subtract' od Ed Sheeran (premiera 5 maja 2023r.)

I heard you calling, now my eyes were open
The day's breaking in the power blue
Sunlight's framing now in every morning
What a way to start off the day with you

Think of floating
I start a discussion to pick a singer
This one will do, I had to bring her
Just at the speaker, still give away

And drop the needle on Dusty
Crossed on leaves, the moment came out of nowhere
A beautiful smile on your face
Yesterday was a long night but I gotta a feeling that the future is so bright
All of the pressure washed away in no time
Now we gotta wait till the clothes are in time
So I drop the needle on Dusty

I'll leave the lust with you, lost in the ocean
Nobody know what you're going through
You talk about it as if I chose you
Take a breathe and grace following with you

I'll flick a vinyl
Before the magic to do his thing, yeah
There's more than sadness we got within us
Let's put some colour into the grey

And drop the needle on Dusty
Crossed on leaves, the moment came out of nowhere
A beautiful smile on your face
Yesterday was a long night but I gotta a feeling that the future is so bright
All of the pressure washed away in no time
Now we gotta wait till the clothes are in time
So I drop the needle on Dusty

Up in the stairs the stereo follows
Moved on the edge to throw it all away
I used to think whatever situation stays the same
But I can see it's going to change

And drop the needle on Dusty
Crossed on leaves, the moment came out of nowhere
A beautiful smile on your face
Yesterday was a long night but I gotta a feeling that the future is so bright
All of the pressure washed away in no time
Now we gotta wait till the clothes are in time
So I drop the needle on Dusty
I drop the needle on Dusty
I drop the needle on Dusty
I drop the needle on Dusty
