Ed Sheeran, Supermarket Flowers

I took the supermarket flowers from the windowsill Threw the day old tea from the cup Packed up the photo album Matthew had made Memories of a life that's been loved

Took the get well soon cards and stuffed animals Poured the old ginger beer down the sink Dad always told me don't you cry when you're down But mum there's a tear every time that I blink

Oh I'm in pieces it's tearing me up but I know A heart that's broke is a heart that's been loved

So I'll sing Hallelujah, you were an angel in the shape of my mum When I fell down you'd be there holding me up Spread your wings as you go And when God takes you back He'll say Hallelujah, you're home

I fluffed the pillows, made the beds, stacked the chairs up Folded your nightgowns neatly in a case John said he'd drive, then put his hand on my cheek And wiped a tear from the side of my face

I hope that I see the world as you did cause I know A life with love is a life that's been lived So I'll sing Hallelujah, you were an angel in the shape of my mum When I fell down you'd be there holding me up Spread your wings as you go, when God takes you back He'll say Hallelujah, you're home

Hallelujah, you were an angel in the shape of my mum You got to see the person that I have become Spread your wings and I know That when God took you back, he said Hallelujah you're home
