

Eddie Vedder, Say Hi

I'll come and say hi when i see eli
I'll come and say hi
I'll come and say hi when i see eli
I'll come and say hi

Eh, Eli, you're a thief you stole my heart
As i dream i see your wings glow in the drk
A message that rings loud and true
Indelible coming from you

Ih you make the connection
And i'll follow your suggesrtion when you say

I'll come and say hi when i see eli
I'll come and say hi
I'll come and say hi when i see eli
I'll come and say hi

Oh Eli, your wisdom belies your age
Heres to you a guru of strengh and grace

Cause the first one to reach out a hand
Show more courage than the one who does last

With all our imperfections
Your light shines on all directions
Cutting through

I'll come and say hi when i see eli
I'll come and say hi
I'll come and say hi when i see eli
I'll come and say hi
I'll come and say hi when i see eli
I'll come and say hi
I'll come and say hi when i see eli
I'll come and say hi
I'll come and say hi when i see eli
I'll come and say hi

oh Eli, come and say hi
