

Edge Of Dawn, The Flight (Lux)

You're going to burn for this
I know

Rewind until you are
The one you were before
I'll take care
Of what she thought it was she saw

I will find a way to hurt you
On a pretext I will leave
I've no choice but to surprise you
You stole the air I breathe

Breakups are infectious
Misfortune comes in pairs
When your dreams rained down in pieces
Who failed to care?

I will find a way to hurt you
On a pretext I will leave
I've no choice but to surprise you
You stole the air I breathe
I will find a way to hurt you
Disappear into the night
Here's your ghost town, here's your shadows
Fading out of sight

Good-bye, my love,
Good-bye
Losing ground is what it takes
If you want to fly
If you want to fly

Nighthawks and outcasts
Sinners and kings
Kalojew, tell me
What do you think?

Nighthawks and outcasts
Sinners and kings
Kalojew, brother
What would you like to drink?

I will find a way to hurt you
On a pretext I will leave
I've no choice but to surprise you
You stole the air I breathe
I will find a way to hurt you
Disappear into the night
Here's your ghost town, here's your shadows
I'm fading out of sight
