

Edyta Bartosiewicz, Have To Carry On

You and I
It's getting colder
And all our feelings overflow
Now it is time
To talk it over
It's too intense to let it go

There's so many reasons
I just have to carry on

Our sentimental love, where is it gone?
I should have known it from the start
And all I want is to escape from home
But I'll never do without your love babe

There's so many reasons
I just have to carry on

Tenderly
You speak to me
"Oh, you won't drive my car no more"
I say "All right
I won't fight with you
That, what I feel I'll never show

There's so many reasons
I just have to carry on

I don't wanna face the darkness
Oh, I will never satisfy my pride
I wanna move a little further
I wanna see what's sleeping
Deep inside me
I don't need all that emptiness
Filling me up when I need to move on
I just need
A bit of happiness
A bit of happiness
A bit of love

There's so many reasons
I just have to carry on
