

Edyta Bartosiewicz, One Day You Will Find Me G

This time my blood's flowing faster
Things have gone too far
You really got me busted
I'm sick and tired
To hell with cheap illusions
And you're dragging my patience back and forth
I know, everyone strolls
They can go wrong
But now I fell it somehow
I can't let it go that easy, I'm gonna...

One day you will find me gone
Still I don't wanna leave...

Our love, it seemed everlasting
When we were kissing
Every night in your car
And every promise we were making was forever
God I never thought I could be so naive
I know, anger may grow
I'm not that strong
So now I feel it somehow
I can't let it go that easy, I'm gonna...

One day you will find me gone
Still I don't wanna leave...

So stop for a while
Consider this!
I'm a live human being!
So hurt me not!
If you know at all what hurting means
And what is love?
This time I'll destroy my life I've made up my mind...

Still I don't wanna leave...
