

Edyta Górniak, Coming Back To Love

I was the earth covered in drifts of snow
Frozen in time a time I'd sooner not remember
You were the breathe of spring
Moving in
Melting me down
To this forgotten heartbeat
Waking with the rhythm of you

I'm coming back to love, oh
Feel you unfold in me
I'm like a flower in your hands
Opening to the sun
Coming back to love again

Lying with you watching the day go down
These simple things have brought me to my senses
Flowing inside my skin
I breathe you in
Into my soul
Deep inside your heartbeat
I'm stronger with the rhythm of you

Coming back coming back
...With you I remember
How good this feels...

I'm coming back to love, oh ...
