

Edyta Górniak, Grateful

since I can recall music was a light in the dark the rustle of the trees lit a spark
inside my heart

breathing life through the Earth I was so captivated my soul was bare

feeling, knowing
that there is something around me that is bigger, wider than I could ever imagine I'm so grateful
for the beauty and joy
life has given me
I hope
I have given too

I have tasted bitter tears tripped and fell upon this road but facing my fears made me stronger life has shown

learning from my mistakes I have discovered that life gives more than it takes

feeling, knowing
that is bigger and wider
than I could ever imagine I'm so grateful
for the beauty and joy
life has given me
I hope
I have given too

Angels sing and I smile inside

feeling, knowing
than I could ever imagine I'm so grateful
for the beauty and joy
life has given me
I hope
I have given too
