

Edyta Górniak, Loving You

More than once
I've tried to walk away
From your love
From your love

But only you
Can make me stay
When in my head my heart is saying
Runaway just like you always do...

But
I can't help myself
from loving You
I can't help myself
from loving You

Now and then
I feel insecure
From this love
From this love

But somehow you
Know the words to say
When hope is gone I hold you near
And give into my deepest fears.
For I don't have no choice

But..
I can't help myself
from loving You
I can't help myself
from loving You

My hands are tired by love
I can't get enough...
