

Edyta Górniak, Never Will I

Looking back through my shadowness
I was wrapped inside my darkest fears
You came like a miracle to me

One gentle touch, a moment's glance
My stumbling heart learned to dance
And all at once I was released

Never will I
Run from your arms
Or stop believing
In the truth of your touch

Never will I
Feel love so strong
See the light so clearly
Need someone so much

Oh, you love me
Like I need to be loved
I feel so good to know I found the one
You hold me close, baby I'm free

Never will I
Run from your arms
Or stop believing
In the truth of your touch

Never will I
Feel love so strong
See the light so clearly
Need someone so much

And where the sound
Of your heartbeat
May forever lead
That is where I
Oh, I will forever be

There's no temptation
No one will take me away
Wherever you go
I want you to know
That's where I will stay

Never will I
Run from your arms
Or stop believing
In the truth of your touch

Never will I
Feel love so strong
See the light so clearly
Need someone so much

And where the sound
Of your heartbeat
May forever lead
That is where I
Oh, I will forever be
