

Eksperimentoj, Note

a thousand years from now will you know the word
to help me keep in soul
instead of silence

pretending all my life
signs of regret
no one could see
inside me eternaly

anything you say
anything you want so
dont never ever
let it go

well this is all Ive got nothing else to lose
but your whitest heart
may beauty all around me

cling to the past
devour dreams at last
through the angel eyes
remembered always

anything you say
let it go
