

Eleni Mandell, I've Got a Tender Heart

You did me like someone you had it in for
You lied when you said you'd treat me fair
Don't you know you hurt me when you're mean
I got feelings and you don't seem to care
I'm rough and I'm rowdy
I'm tough and I'm smart
And I got a tender heart

I know you think I'm strong enough to stand the pain
I'd get over you and make a brand new start
I'm rough and I'm rowdy
I'm tough and I'm smart
But I got a tender heart

I know you think I'm strong enough to stand the pain
I'd get over you and make a brand new start
I'm rough and I'm rowdy
Oh I'm tough and I'm smart
And I got a tender heart
