Ella Henderson, Glow

Like a chest of hidden gold Shimmers in the depths below We are, we are, the treasures that They hide Like the sun that saves the night Bursting through a darkened sky We are, we are, soldiers of the light

And we will glow Oh, oh, oh

So let them build their righteous Tower Our blazing hearts will burn it down We are, we are, soldiers of the light And we will glow Oh, oh, oh

We are fire, we are fire
And our love will burn
The flame will never die
We are brighter, we are brighter
Lets shoe 'em how we light up
Tonight
And we will glow
Oh, oh, oh

We are fire, we are fire
And our love will burn
The flame will never die
We are brighter, we are brighter
Let's show 'em how we light up tonight
And we will glow
Oh, oh, oh

Like a chest of hidden gold Shimmers in the depths below We are, we are, the treasures that They hide Like the sun that saves the night Bursting through a darkened sky We are, we are, soldiers of the light

And we will glow Oh. oh. oh

We are fire, we are fire
And our love will burn
The flame will never die
We are brighter, we are brighter
Lets shoe 'em how we light up
Tonight
And we will glow
Oh, oh, oh
And we will glow
Oh, oh, oh, oh

We are fire, we shoot our flame up high They see us burn across a thousand miles We are brighter, the flame will never die Let's show 'em how we light up tonight Oh, you and I we're soldiers of light

And we will glow

Oh, oh, oh And we will glow Oh, oh, oh And we will glow
