Elle Varner, Only Wanna Give It To You (ft. J. Co

Thought you were just another romeo
The shoe you pass by in the store, window
But soon as I got home I wish I?d bought you instead
I got it bad, I?ll take the black, take the navy & red
No other man has ever ever had quite this effect
I sleep alone cause there?s no room in my bed for any other lover With no gun to my head
Your kisses hold me hostage and I don?t wanna stop it

Cause I only wanna give it to you
And I want you more than a new pair of shoes
I only wanna give it to you
And I sure do hope that you feel like I do

I came before this digital ocean where folks only move in digital motion
But you?re so classic I want you more than my Adidas
All the bees are gettin at you cause your honey is sweeter I need ya, with no gun to my head
Your kisses hold me hostage and I don?t wanna stop it

Cause I only wanna give it to you
And I want you more than a new pair of shoes
I only wanna give it to you
And I sure do hope that you feel like I do

Can?t let this go what can I say?
I just don?t know
My love ain?t no trip for the weekend
Here to stay for all of the seasons
You?re the weakness that I can?t control

[J. Cole:]
Baby you all I need to get by
You fly, so you?re all I need to get high
You got it? so put ya number in this camera phone
And we can live like the camera?s on
No script, though.. these boys claiming they ball
Got no grip, though
My flow switchmode, it?s so schizo
So i?m the one that your girl blow a kiss for You?ve got to love me. Cole World, no snuggie
Baddest girls hug me, my mind on you though
You?re hoping I?m the one
But I already knew though
It ain?t no secret that I get around, true
But girl, you make me want to settle down with you
Get a crib with a view, lay up in the bed, make a kid, maybe 2
All my exgirlfriends gon have to get a clue
Cause the rumors that you heard about is true!

Cause I only wanna give it to you
And I want you more than a new pair of shoes
I only wanna give it to you
And I sure do hope that you feel like I do
