

Ellie Goulding, Beating Heart

Eyes make their peace in difficulties
With wounded lips and salted cheeks
And finally we step to leave to the departure lounge of disbelief
And I don't know where I'm going
But I know it's gonna be a long time
And I'll be leaving in the morning
Come the white wine bitter sunlight

Want to hear your beating heart tonight
Before that bleeding sun comes alive
I want to make the best of what is left hold tight
And hear my beating heart one last time
Before daylight

And the canyon underneath the trees
Behind the dark sky you looked at me
I fell for you like autumn leaves
And never faded evergreen
And I don't know where I'm going
But I know it's gonna be a long time
Cause I'll be leaving in the morning
Come the white wine bitter sunlight

Want to hear your beating heart tonight
Before that bleeding sun comes alive
I want to make the best of what is left hold tight
And hear my beating heart one last time

I can't face this now
Everything's changed
I just wanna be by your side
Here's hoping we collide
Here's hoping we collide
Here's hoping we collide

Want to hear your beating heart tonight
Before that bleeding sun comes alive
I want to make the best of what is left hold tight
And hear my beating heart one last time

Want to hear your beating heart
