

Ellie Goulding, Better Man

Soft as a shadow and strong as a drink I like
Cold as my dollars and warm as the waves I ride

You can meet me outside
Take a bruising to the pride
Wouldn't kick you when you're down
But I hate it when you lie
Tried to make me lose my cool
And you thought I would've ran
Every time I get a chance
Maybe I'm a better man

'Cause I'm soft as a shadow and strong as a drink I like
Cold as my dollars and warm as the waves I ride

I'm the better man
I'm the better man
I'm the better man
I'm the better man

Out of my head but you made me this way, I swear
Rose-tinted glasses but trust me I'm seeing red

Took the confidence I had
You can watch me take it back
I'm in the future and the past
That's the perfect hourglass
Tried to make me lose my cool
Hold my karma in my hands
Every time I get a chance
Maybe I'm a better man

'Cause I'm soft as a shadow and strong as a drink I like
Cold as my dollars and warm as the waves I ride

'Cause I'm soft as a shadow and strong as a drink I like
Cold as my dollars and warm as the waves I ride

I'm the better man
I'm the better man
I'm the better man
I'm the better man