Ellie Goulding, My Blood

That feeling that doesn't go away just did And I walked a thousand miles to prove it And I'm caught in the crossfire of my own thoughts The color of my blood is all I see on the rocks As you sail from me

Alarms will ring for eternity
The waves will break every chain on me
My bones will bleach
My flesh will flee
So help my lifeless frame to breathe

And God knows I'm not dying but I breathe now And God knows it's the only way to heal now With all the blood I lost with you It drowns the love I thought I knew

The lost dreams are buried in my sleep for him And this was the ecstacy of a love forgotten And I'm thrown in the gunfire of empty bullets And my blood is all I see As you steal my soul from me

Alarms will ring for eternity
The waves will break every chain on me

And God knows I'm not dying but I breathe now And God knows it's the only way to heal now With all the blood I lost with you It drowns the love I thought I knew

And God knows I'm not dying but I breathe now And God knows it's the only way to heal now With all the blood I lost with you It drowns the love I thought I knew

And God knows I'm not dying but I breathe now And God knows it's the only way to heal now With all the blood I lost with you It drowns the love I thought I knew
