

Elton John, El Dorado

Music by Elton John

Lyrics by Tim Rice

From the soundtrack "The Road To El Dorado"

Our glorious city

Was build by the divinities by Gods

Who saw fit to bestow

The gift of a paradise

Peaceful and harmonious upon

Us mere mortals below

And made El Dorado

The magnificent and golden

One thousand years ago

El Dorado, El Dorado, El Dorado

But all this was granted

For only one millennium

I know my legacy is to fulfill

My promise to all my people

Who have trusted me, the Gods

Will approve of us still

Preserve El Dorado

The magnificent and golden

And I believe they will

El Dorado, El Dorado, El Dorado

El Dorado, El Dorado, El Dorado

The mountains so high and waters deep

Are her disguise

Her secrets are safe from foreign hands

And eyes forever

Preserve El Dorado

The magnificent and goldent

And I believe they will

El Dorado, El Dorado, El Dorado

El Dorado, El Dorado, El Dorado

El Dorado, El Dorado, El Dorado
