

Elvis Presley, I'll Take Love

Some people think that pot of gold,
Is all they'll ever want to hold,
But there's a treasure,
I think more of,
Measure for measure,
I'll take love.

Some people think that their success,
Is all they need for happiness,
But there's a pleasure,
I think more of,
Measure for measure,
I'll take love.

Pound for pound oh yeah and ounce for ounce,
Love is all that really counts.
So let them have their wealth and fame,
Eat caviar and drink champagne,
Your all the treasure,
I'm dreaming of,
Measure for measure,
I'll take love.

Pound for pound oh yeah and ounce for ounce,
Love is all that really counts.
So let them have their wealth and fame,
Eat caviar and drink champagne,
Your all the treasure,
I'm dreaming of,
Measure for measure,
I'll take love,
I'll take love,
I'll take love,
I'll take love,
I'll take love.
