Elvis Presley, Thrill Of Your Love

(Words & Description of the Wealth of a great millionaire I have reached for a bright star above But the thrill of it all To me seems so small When compared to the thrill of your love

I'd rather give everything
That I own in this world
Than to be all alone and unloved
For no earthly price and no sacrifice
Is too much to give
For your love

I'd rather give everything
That I own in this world
Than to be all alone and unloved
For no earthly price and no sacrifice
Is too much to give
For your love
