

Emeli Sandé, Where I Sleep

There's nowhere that I wouldn't follow
There's nothing that I won't do for your kiss
I love you like there's no tomorrow
Cause nothing ever felt like this

There's nothing I won't steal or borrow
I'll travel on a boat or aeroplane
I'll explore a world of sorrow
Cause when I find you I know, I know I'ma be OK

See the times are changing
And I'm sure of nothing that I know
Except this is us, and this is love, and this is where I'm home

In a world that's breaking, where nothing is for keeps
Oh this is us, this is love and this is where I sleep
This is us, this is love and this is where I sleep

I'm from a generation undecided
I'm restless and I can't help changing lanes
But in all the noise and the excitement,
Your love is all that will remain
I've said all of my goodbyes to ego
I gambled all I got, there's no plan B
It's the first time that I've learnt to let go
It's the only place I feel, only place I feel like me

See the times are changing
I'm sure of nothing that I know
Except this is us and this is love, and this is where I'm home

In a world that's breaking, where nothing is for keeps
Oh this is us, this is love and this is where I sleep

See the times are changing
I'm sure of nothing that I know
Except this is us and this is love, and this is where I'm home

In a world that's breaking, where nothing is for keeps
Oh this is us, this is love and this is where I sleep
This is us, this is love and this is where I sleep
This is us, this is love and this is where I sleep
