

Eminem, Daddy Don't Go

i remember when i was little i saw you walk out that door i remember seeing my mum her heart was broken and sore well now you know that i really hate you i wish i could shoot you i learn every day by your mistakes now i know never to leave my daughtter just like you did me well thats tough my daughter stays with me she makes happy no matter what just coz 8 mile was a big hit your my papa that dont mean you are you piece of * now rap over
hopefully you too
