

Eminem, Monkey See, Monkey Do

[intro]

[laughing]

ay yo 50

what i tell you

we aint even have to say shit

they did it

[chorus]

monkey see monkey do

dont ever make the first move just let em' come to you cause they always gunna see and do what the other one do so let em' come to you

the rest of us follow suit

tweedle-de-tweedle-dum

if they really want it bad enough well then they gunna come now here they come as we expected now we just set em' up check-mate motherfucker games over

we won

[body]

it doesnt take much for me to raise such a stink up when motherfuckers hate your guts you aint even gotta say much for me to put a pen to a blank sheet of papers like smearing blood stains with a paint brush i cant explain what it is my brain does but however it works its insane its plain nutz

and it aint just my brain thas dangerous its a whole combination of things it takes nutz

and im not affriad to raise the stakes up i got a million bucks in the banks and 8 trucks for anybody who gets on the track and spansks us im patiently waiting for the day im anxious to see the look on ya fake mugs when you thugs go bankrupt ya drunk

ya aint tough

whatever you drank musta just turned ya into some gangstas this is me talking motherfucker this aint drugs

you wanna pop, shit wake-up, then make-up

FUCK THAT

its too late chump now face up i pray for the day that someone who spits with the caliber that nas and jay does opens up his jaw to say something or rattle my name off or rattle the first thing from the top of his brain off so i can blow the fuckin dust off of this chainsaw and give him the surgery that he came for till i pull the paint off i never been shot

but i think me and 50 musta been cut from the same cloth cause ive always came off like ja's chain

when they try to rush him and lost and came back and gave him a watch in exchange for it i dont stop the only thing i wait for is day that i dont gotta report to probate court cause ima give ya all the reason to hate more cause ive been holding my tounge till i got a sprained jaw alot of rappers on my list that just aint ja and ima read that motherfucker off from april you pussies think i went soft since 8 mile when i come back ill be shootin more than just paint balls trust me
