

Emma Bale, Run

Run to the water and see no one knows except from me and i know time has come so run to the water
baby run
Take my hand
i'll give you strenght Guide your home trough forgotten lands See the world it set your feet
If you close your eyes
You'll never seen to do Run to the water baby
Run to the water
Run to the water baby
Run Whatever it is you know that i'll got you wherever you go
you know that i'll find you nothing can take you lead you away from home whenever you need me
i'll be beside you
carry you with me
i'll lead the way back home the way back home
Run to the water and see
trust yourself and you'll be free
