

Emmelie De Forest, Drunk Tonight

Nothing is worse than a drunk excess so stop wherever you are I know this hurts and it's all a mess but stop and live with the scars
What we had is never coming back and what you did will never be forgotten you can't fix it it's already dead so let it go
I just think you're drunk tonight
drunk tonight
You don't really want me back
I just think you're broke inside sad and hide
You don't really want me back
I put down the phone
It's time to go home
I just think you're drunk tonight
drunk tonight
You don't really want me back
And nothing you say can never erase the way you mess with my hair And nothing you do will ever intrude you deserve every single regret
What we had is never coming back
and what you did will never be forgotten you can't fix it it's all in your head
so let it go
I just think you're drunk tonight
drunk tonight
You don't really want me back
I just think you're broke inside side and hide
You don't really want me back
So put down the phone
It's time to go home
I just think you're drunk tonight
drunk tonight
You don't really want me back
Oh go to back to live of your sorrow
This will all become tomorrow
I just think you're drunk tonight
You don't really want me back
I just think you're sad and hide
You don't really want me back
So put down the phone
it's time to go home
Just leave me alone
I don't wanna hear this fight
I'm sick and tired
I don't even want you back Now probably you go somewhere I'm faking tears
I'll never wanna have you back
So put down the phone
it's time to go home
I just think your drunk tonight
drunk tonight
You don't really want me back
