

Emo Side Project, Alone As Well As Gone

breathe in breathe out youre not alone but im alone tonight i wish this all would end right now and i might smile again don't say a word i can read your mind and it's ok for you to leave rip my heart out of my chest leave the blood stain on the ground for others to see for the next girl to do the same to me just say youre sorry and move on and leave me here alone ill give you this song im just like them im just like him im a failure in everyones eyes is there a reason to live i guess it's part of being a kid well we all wish we were grown up the question ill always ask why couldnt we just last even the bluest skies must turn gray
