

En Vogue, Waitin' On You (Bonus Track)

It's ten o' clock and I'm still alone, waitin' by the phone, it makes me think you won't be back again, and I'm feeling so intense.

(backs: Got me waitin', got me waitin'.)

chorus

I can't keep wastin' my time, waitin' on you to come home, to come home now.

(repeat)

I fantasize of makin' love, it's such a lonely feeling without you, but I would not have to dream, if you would just be there to share my love desire.

bridge

I should not be alone, just waitin' for a man who says he loves me so. I have more patience than I can believe. It's a shame, I can't believe I'm still alone
