

Enbound, Give Me Light

Shocked by the bush in a civilized frame
That gasps with greed for more, more and more
Unsure I move on to the end of the line
Break free, let it be, live and die

Into the light, all faces shine so bright
Stamping out from life and leaving all the spite
Into the light of flanging out of phase
Be sure to not look back, it screams of blaze

Get out!
Leave me be
Transform into love and pain
(Transforming to a light)
Get out!
You belong here, demand of the reasons why
(Do I belong here, have I lost it all)
(Transforming to love and pain)

Flushed through pointless lives
Ignore all the grease and things that they say
The fear is sublimed

The truth is scarred and right in your face
You're blind and it's lost, not a trace

Into the light, all faces shine so bright
Stamping out from life and leaving all the spite
Into the light of flanging out of phase
Be sure to not look back, it screams of blaze

Get out!
Leave me be
Transform into love and pain
(Transforming to a light)
Get out!
You belong here, demand of the reasons why
(Do I belong here, have I lost it all)

Get out!
Leave me be
Transform into love and pain
(Transforming to love)
Get out!
You belong here, demand of the reasons why
