

Entombed, They

Sudden low of an all time high willing to believe whatever gets me by So, I got with the winning team but nothing ever seem to be what is seems

O yeah! Well I don't care!
I'm just too busy getting from here to there

I put my hand over the flame now, nothing would ever be the same one day it's there - one day it's gone but I still feel like I'm the lucky one, yeah!

Y'know how they say, "hey, don't rock a boat if you're in it";
well, the ship we're all in babe, is sinking by a minute
They say, "hey, it's all a bunch of bull!"; well, it's just what I've heard but they shoot every bird that don't sing beautiful

Everyday victory, everyday peace just them little, little things that keeps you off your knees Sunshine of a smile, subtle if you please them little victorys - will keep you off your knees

Come have a listen to what they got to say Y'know me, I'm just glad when it comes my way
They say, "hey, we only hurt the ones we love"; well, it's not the kind of comfort I was thinking of
