

Erin O'Donnell, And So I Am

I have been known to overanalyze i like ice cream but only late at night i don't give up without a decent fight this is who i am i am a hopeless romantic but life leaves no time to get caught up in it but still my cup is overflowing with happiness and joy

Chorus
i am faith and hope
i know 'cause i am known you are life and love
you are and so i am

i am the owner of a moody soul i try to accept the things i can't control there;s so much that i guess i'll never know i take it as it comes

i don't drink coffee i like my sleep
it's hard to admit it when i have a need good or bad this is the truth about me but more importantly....

Chorus

undeserving but forgiven i was hopeless but now im living i was lost until you found me i am free because you saved me

i know 'cuae i am known
i am grace and truth
i am all things in you
