

Eve, The Beat Is So Crazy (ft. Madonna & Pharrell)

Some nights all alone
Thoughts of you coming creepy in
Temporarily and say
'cause you'll never gonna change, no!
We had good times with the bad
Always out with what we had
Keep your pride, I'm not mad
Make me feel like love's a fad
I'd always thought
We'd be happily forever

[Madonna:]
The Beat Is So Crazy
It makes me wanna let go
And totally forget today
I'm better off anyway

Never thought I
Was the type to hang around
Lied to myself constantly
About the person I thought you would be
Who's to blame?
I guess it's me
I caused my own misery
Tit for tat, this and that
I needed my own life back
Now here I am,
I'm so happy
It's time to move on!

[Madonna:]
The Beat Is So Crazy
It makes me wanna let go
And totally forget today
I'm better off anyway

[Eve & Pharrell:]
We had, we had, we had, we had
(Are you listening?)
We had good times with the bad
Always out with what we had
Keep your pride, I'm not mad
Make me feel like loves a fad
I'd always thought, we'd be happily forever
I'd always thought
What you want her to do?
Now here I am
I'd always thought
Why can't you listen?
We'd be happily forever

[Madonna:]
The Beat Is So Crazy
It makes me wanna let go
And totally forget today
I'm better off anyway
