

Everclear, Lame

Then they came on me
They dragged me from the bar
Still wet from sweat and beer
I bruised so prettily from men
Blinded by their fear
These men broke my back and made me lame
Lame
Lame

Then she said to me
"I'd give you everything
To make it like before
To make you love me like
You used to
Make you love me more."
She said to me
"Your life is large but
Your mind is lame."
Lame
Lame

Can't believe my eyes
No, can't believe my eyes
When I see the truth
All the things I've done
And every place I'm queer
I never stay
I run
Now I know why I live in shame
Lame
Lame
Lame
Yeah I live in shame
Lame
Lame
Lame

It's hard to sleep at night
I hardly ever sleep at night
