

Evergrey, Eternal Nocturnal

Hand in hand with the hopeless
I see you drowning in the harbor of the soulless
Your mind is like wild horses
Stampede it rages you're distorted

And we were watching from afar
And we were hiding in our won dark
Hoping we would be brave enough for you

I'll be your winds
When you need a storm
Your sense of hope when you fall
I'll be your shelter
When you need a home
I'll be your reason to all
And weh you're feeling down and low
I'll be your eyes in the dark
And i'll be there
When your time will come
Eternal Nocturnal
