

Evertale, Chapter 666 (We Are the Hammer)

Come with me brothers now
We hunt the demon down
For we are vengeance, fear our name
The grey knights strike again

This war will never end
But we will make a stand
For chaos never wanes nor fades
Find peace upon my blades

I bring the stormhammer down on you
Come fear my righteous wrath

Chapter 666
We are the hammer
Against the tides of chaos we will rise
For when the chapter calls my friend
Then we will answer
We are the hammer
Chapter 666

Let our banner fly
High in the stormy sky
We are the finest of the best
And you will die just like the rest

Like a righteous storm
We crush the chaos-born
Blessed bolter in my hand
Your existence finds an end

Brothers charge, strike down, let fly
Death, destruction from the sky
In his name let none survive

I bring the stormhammer down on you
Come fear my righteous wrath

Chorus

For it is us
We who stand faithful to the emperor
The deadliest weapons of humanity
Against the forces of chaos
We bring the light to the dark
We bring the purifying fire
We purge the unclean
We are the hammer
Chapter 666

Chorus
