

Everything Everything, Desire

I want this planet And I want it now
To beat like an anvil til the poisonous out
I am a pencil-pusher with pencil-pusher blues
What the hell do I have left to lose

And I can't stop now

Can you do the things you dream about
I don't know how
Do you wish to see fire in the clouds
It's too late!-\

Desire! /3x
I don't know how
Desire /3x

I want desire, I don't want to sleep
It fills my vision, I can barely speak
I'm just a knuckle dragger with knuckle dragger grin
It took my mind and left a hollow twin

But I;m almost there

They have different colors of blood
I don't think so
They have power like you never could
It's too late

Desire! /3x
I don't know how
Desire /3x

Can I tell you that I'm empty
This is all that I see clearly?

Desire! /3x
I can't stop now
Desire /3x
I said it's too late
Desire /3x
I don't know how
Desire /3x

Just let me go
Can tell you that I'm empty?
This is all that I see clear
