

Excuse Me Moses, Vital Signs

One in a million loves to find two in a row won't fall behind if three of four knew what to do anyone could find the clue you've got five fingers on each hand to show infinite people what you're for sanctified of seven sins the 8 ball can change everyhting today I need a place to hide so could you please check my vital signs I'm cracking up see I've lost my will to try the future's past already by

Be glad that you've got a place to be know about your simplicity you're just another freak in here you better face the facts my dear you've got so much to show but noone sees everyone fights and disagrees glorified remainaing days

the 8 ball can change everyhting

I'm cracking up see I've lost my will to try
Today, check my vital signs
