

Exlibris, Hellphoria

Come on, did you not see it coming?
The world's spinning out of control
Go on, You'd better start running
There's nowhere to hide, nowhere to go

Hell yeah, it's the end of a season
We've come to the end of this road
Wake up, it's all for a reason
The riders are ready to roll

It's the end of the world as we know
Open the gates, bring it on
It's the end but it's been quite a show
The death walks the Earth
The devil has left his disguise
We're in for one hell of a ride

All the stars are falling
Hear the devil calling
Should be worried but I ain't got the time
A new day won't be dawning
You won't see me crawl
Takes more than that to bring me down

It's the end of the world as we know
Open the gates, bring it on
It's the end but it's been quite a show
The death walks the Earth
The devil has left...
It's the end of the world as we know
Open the gates, bring it on
It's the end but it's been quite a show
The death walks the Earth
The devil has left his disguise
We're in for one hell of a ride
