

Face To Face, I Used To Think

I've tried to fake it
I've tried to lie about it
I've tried to take it
There's nothing new about it
I can't take a thing from you
Because I want what I want and it wouldn't do
I've tried to make it
There's nothing you can say

I used to think that things were going to be ok
I never wanted to think
There would be another way
Is there another way?
