

Face To Face, Late

I don't know where I belong
All I know is that I'm wrong
I can't wait another day
Make it all just go away
I don't want it today
I don't want to be late
If you knew what I knew
You wouldn't be willing to wait
Don't be fooled by what you read
It's not the same as what you see
You're trying to sell me
And it's something for nothing
I don't want to be late
