

Faderhead, Houston

You bow, back rounds
Drop down, like a 40hz sound
It ain't pretty and your ditty sounds odd
When this motherfucker drops you
Like an act of god
Sustain's the game
Establish one more brand name
I'll be crushing all the rushing mules
When this motherfucker shreds you
With a touch of the oldschool

Houston
We're landing on your fuckin' face

Serene, obscene
Can't get my ass to intervene
It ain't working when the company's broke
Cause this motherfucker grabbed you
Just to make you choke
Inside your eyes
I see right through your mind
Fearful stopping of the robot thoughts
When this motherfucker drops you
Like an act of god
