

Faktion, Forgive Me

Concentrating on my knees
Cause theyre no help to me
I find myself with simple questions
And simple needs

Bleeding forces gather me
Undo my weakness and appease
My sadness and guilt
Of what was done for me

Chorus:
Ill know what you are
The light in the dark
And Ill see what you are

Forgive me

And Ill take what you are
Over again
Ill need nothing more

Take me

Many voices speak
Many times I am weak
Many things escape
Its part of me
Many chances that I take
To kill you again
It shouldve been me
And Everyone

Repeat Chorus

Take me
See who you are
Know who you are
See who you are
Take me

Repeat Chorus

Take me

Forgive me
