

Fame Factory, Too Many Nights - Anders

Oooooohhhh...

They say that I'll get by
They say that love can make you blind
I'll find another
And I learn to smile

I know this steals so much unsaid
And so much we both regret and
This emptiness is hard to face without you

Too many nights
Here all alone
Too many tears
Too many reasons not to let go
Too many nights
Still holding on
Nothing feels right since you've been gone
Cause ever since you said goodbye
My life've been filled with too many nights

You were my everything
You were the fire inside of me
You were my laughter, my hopes and my dreams
Now I'm lost inside those yesterdays
But somehow I still keep praying
I'll find a way to make you wanna love me

Too many nights
Here all alone
Too many tears
Too many reasons not to let go
Too many nights
Still holding on
Nothing feels right since you've been gone
Cause ever since you said goodbye
My life've been filled with too many nights

We had forever
Now we're just worlds apart
Do you remember
Look in your heart

Too many nights
Here all alone
Too many tears
Too many reasons not to let go
Too many nights
Still holding on
Nothing feels right since you've been gone
Cause ever since you said goodbye
My life've been filled with too many nights

Here all alone
Too many tears
Still holding on
Cause ever since you said goodbye

Oooooohhhh...
