Fame Factory, Too Many Nights - Anders

Oooooohhhh...

They say that I'll get by They say that love can make you blind I'll find another And I learn to smile

I know this steals so much unsaid And so much we both regret and This emptiness is hard to face without you

Too many nights
Here all alone
Too many tears
Too many reasons not to let go
Too many nights
Still holding on
Nothing feels right since you've been gone
Cause ever since you said goodby
My life've been filled with too many nights

You were my everything You were the fire inside of me You were my laughter, my hopes and my dreams Now I'm lost inside those yesterdays But somehow I still keep praying I'll find a way to make you wanna love me

Too many nights
Here all alone
Too many tears
Too many reasons not to let go
Too many nights
Still holding on
Nothing feels right since you've been gone
Cause ever since you said goodby
My life've been filled with too many nights

We had forever Now we're just worlds apart Do you remember Look in your heart

Too many nights
Here all alone
Too many tears
Too many reasons not to let go
Too many nights
Still holding on
Nothing feels right since you've been gone
Cause ever since you said goodby
My life've been filled with too many nights

Here all alone
Too many tears
Too many reasons not to let go
Too many nights
Still holding on
Nothing feels right since you've been gone
Cause ever since you said goodby
My life've been filled with too many nights

Ooooooohhhh...
