

Faydee, Move On (C'est La Vie)

C'est la vie
I wish it could be easier for
You and me
I'm trying to pretend like I'm not
Almost sweet
But the truth is I can't stand to see you
So happy
Happy with somebody else not me
No, don't ask me
Don't ask me how I'm feeling lately
I'm happy
The truth is that I'm lying baby
Do I, do I even love you?
Do I, do I even care?
Or is it 'cause another lover
Is loving you somewhere!
Tell me how do I pretend like I'm not
Loosing my mind
Seeing you with someone else, baby!
Can't move on
Can't move on
I can't wait till the day I'd move on
There you go
Looking like you did when we first
Fell in love
I wish I could pretend like I don't Care at all
But the truth is I can't help I want you
More and more
And my mind is made up but my heart won't let go!
No, don't ask me
Don't ask me what I'm feeling lately
I'm happy
The truth is that I'm lying baby
Do I, do I even love you?
Do I, do I even care?
Or is it 'cause another lover
Is loving you somewhere!
Tell me how do I pretend like I'm not
Loosing my mind
Seeing you with someone else, baby!
Can't move on
Can't move on
I can't wait till the day I'd move on
I'm not jealous no I swear it ain't like that, baby!
Girl no hate but you can do better than that, baby!
Help me.
Help me now
Talk to me. talk to me now
Help me.
Help me now
Would you talk to me. talk to me now
Tell me how do I pretend like I'm not
Loosing my mind
Seeing you with someone else, baby!
Can't move on
Can't move on
I can't wait till the day I'd move on
