Feder, Lordly (feat. Alex Aiono)

Once we run the show Everyone will know The we will be the ones That hold the highest truth

I;m from the game strong on my face I tell them:
Don't go
We love /2x
That's my place
There's nothing to do
I just do it
Nothing but under this Sun

Once we run the show Everyone will know The we will be the ones That hold the highest truth

There lies a Kingdom in my heart A reign of light That's lights up the dark there's nothing to do I just do it Nothing but under this Sun
