

Feeling Left Out, The Best Of Both Worlds

I followed your brake lights--into the night
I kicked the curb--till my foot felt right

Expectations must not be held as high
Its not the same
You are not mine
[2x]

You cried but did you mean it?
Hes so ignorant to you being true
To enlighten him would frighten you
Your best of both worlds would collide
So let what is true subside
Enjoy the free ride

Hide from the sunlight--Ill fight the sleep tonight
With a new day comes a new life--Im scared to open my eyes

Expectations must not be held as high
Its not the same
You are not mine
[2x]

You cried but did you mean it?
Hes so ignorant to you being true
To enlighten him would frigten you
Your best of both worlds would collide
So let what is true subside
Enjoy the free ride...
