

Fergie, Hungry (ft. Rick Ross)

Hungry, hungry
Hungry, hungry
Hungry, hungry
Hungry, hungry

to say it's complicated understatement of the year well maybe, conflict made it the new flavor in your ear they know that I'm a problem that's why everybody is scared whatever doesn't kill you can make you an ill-ionaire just turn the headphones up Or make the windows roll up I make they hands go up when I show up
and I blow it till I'm full up
wait, hold up
girl up in the mirror
only one I fear
you say you the realest I told you I'm the illest

sick, sick
hungry
starving
not thirsty
just hungry
ambitious
so hungry
still hungry

[Rick Ross:]
