

Fetal Attraction, Designed To Be Your Slave

Hatred seeps through my skin false tears cover my face i'm dying here tonight don't try to catch me as i fall designed by you ignorant assholes designed to be your perfect slave forget what we have

forget what we said
forget what was done
and what goes on in your head deny all the false accusations ignore all the medi-fking-a forget the shit that you call life it's just another broken fking home it all strikes back in the end

whatever we had is gone
in the end
SO FK YOU!

Forget what we have
and what goes on in your head
