

Fifth Harmony, A Thousand Years

[Verse 1: Camila + Normani]

Tired, tired, you're all I want, yeah
It'll be 'til the end, give me nothing I've ever tried
It'll be the perfect sin, something like the truest lie
Everywhere somehow, the only place I'll ever be
As long as you hold me down, oh such a liberty

[Pre-chorus: Dinah]

Warm me with your touch, pressure from your fingertips
Never be enough, I'll do nothing but submit

[Chorus: Lauren]

I just wanna feel a thousand hands from you, only you
Can you make me feel a thousand hands from you, only you?

[Verse 2: Normani + Ally]

Grab a hold of my soul and make me feel complete within you'll be the one to show these goosebumps
I'll wear my heart on my sleeve, I need you to feel the pain
Would you take a bullet for me? Cause you know I'll do the same

[Pre-chorus: Dinah]

Warm me with your touch, pressure from your fingertips
Never be enough, I'll do nothing but submit

[Chorus: Camila]

I just wanna feel a thousand hands from you and only you
Can you make me feel a thousand hands from you and only you?

[Outro: Camila]

I just want to feel a thousand, from you
A thousand hands from
Just wanna feel a thousand
A thousand hands from you
Feel a thousand hands from you
